The advertisement features a blue background. At the top left is the Wondershare MobileTrans logo, which includes a stylized 't' with a signal icon. To its right, the text 'WONDERSHARE' is in small white letters, 'MobileTrans' is in large white letters, and 'For Windows' is in a small white box. Below the logo, the main headline reads 'One Click Transfer from Phone to Phone'. Underneath this, a sub-headline states: 'Transfer contacts, text messages, call logs, photos, music, video and apps between iPhone, Android, Nokia (Symbian) phones and BlackBerry – in just one-click!'. A yellow note below says 'Fully compatible with iOS 8' with a 'NEW' tag. At the bottom, there are seven icons representing data types: Contacts, SMS, Videos, Photos, Call Logs, Music, and Android. On the left and right sides of the central text are two smartphone screens. The left screen shows a photo of a smiling child wearing yellow goggles. The right screen shows the same photo on a Samsung phone, with a white checkmark in a circle in the top right corner, indicating a successful transfer.
